Old Fort Erie is Ontario's first British fort. Originally built in 1764 at the end of Pontiac's War, the fort served through the American Revolution, the War of 1812 and was even used by Fenian Raiders in 1866. During the War of 1812, Fort Erie changed hands four times and during a 6 week siege became Canada's bloodiest battlefield and archaeological treasure trove. Today, Old Fort Erie National Historic Site is considered a GEM by CAA/AAA and has hosted more re-enactments than any Canadian historic site. Located at the mouth of the Niagara River, Old Fort Erie is the starting point of the Niagara Parkway, 'the prettiest Sunday drive in the world' according to Sir Winston Churchill.
